between the party and its present platform and hope in this way to defeat silver without separating themselves from the party, and then to make another fight for control of the party organization. They hope to make their fight impressive by the distinguished names which they will associate with it, and they think that by speaking as democrats what they say will e more effective. They will try to read this convention out of the party. Senator Mitchell of Wisconsin said to me today: "If the silver men have got to control the convention my only hope is that they will nominate a man who can be defeated." This is the general sentiment of the gold democrats. Their most earnest wish for the coming campaign will be the defeat of their own party.

The silver men, therefore, will have to suffer fire from the rear constantly during their battle with the republicans. Hot Fight Over Organization.

Indications are that there will be a hot fight in the convention over the organization. The gold men are not disposed to surrender anything. They will insist upon the right of the present national committee to select the temporary chairman without interference, and intend to put a gold man in that position if it can be done by any method that can be devised. Word has come from New York that Mr. Hill is to be made temporary chairman at any cost.

Chairman Harrity received the silver steering committee politely when they called on him Tuesday to state their demands. but his listening to them was not due to any weakening on his part, but to the fact that he did not want to expose his position and excite further antagonism before he and his associates are ready to move. The gold men have been waiting for the arrival of Mr. Whitney and the eastern contingent, and have, meanwhile, tried to give out the impression that they have despaired of doing anything, and will put up but a perfunctory fight

This was merely a mask behind which to gain time. The eastern contingent comes today. The announcement of their departure from New York yesterday was the signal for bolder talk, and now Mr. Harrity and the rest of the gold men on the present national committee want it understood that they are not to be dictated to. As the matter is stated in their behalf, they know they cannot win in this convention, but they expect to work up such a row as will discredit the convention and further their general plan to defeat the ticket at the colls when nominated.

Mr. Harrity's plans at present contemplate the seating of Senator Hill as temperary chairman by the edict of the committee without permitting the convention to vote on the question. A dispatch from New York outlines this plan briefly, and indicates the intention to drive the silver men to desperation and violence by arbitrarily overriding them in the preliminaries while the present national committee has

The Plan of the Hour.

The statement is made that the silver majority can be driven to block all proceedings in their effort to make the voice of the majority heard. The temporary chairman designated by Mr. Harrity will hold to the gavel, and if the silver men put up some one else to preside there will be two temporary presiding officers, and the silver majority will be regarded by the national committee as bolters.

The folly of such a plan is so obvious to everybody here that it could hardly be thought possible of success by any one except Mr. Harrity, and those who look at the situation over the distance from New York. There is no doubt felt, however, that it is Mr. Harrity's plan, but it is not thought he will ever attempt to carry it out. Mr. Whitney will see the folly of it as scon as he looks over the ground here and very few people who know the practical Senator Hill believe that he will lend himself. It is simply the plan of the hour, which is giving the few gold men here an opportunity to shake their heads wisely, to wink the other eye, and to declare: "You just wait and see."

The silver men do not believe anything of the sort will be attempted, but they are so arranging their plans as to guard against every contingency. Their determination to have none but silver men on guard and to make no sort of concessions seems to be fixed and there is no prospect of its being changed. Their present idea is to make Bryan of Nebraska temporary chairman, and Senator Harris permanent chairman. If they become convinced, however, that there is to be serious trouble over the temporary organization through an arbitrary effort of Harrity to take possession of it, Senator Blackburn will be selected for temporary chairman.

The importance of the temporary chairmanship is not that it will curtail the powers of the silver men. They have the power to do exactly as they please, as to the permanent organization. The objection is to having a gold man make the opening speech, which usually sounds the keynote of the campaign. The majority do not want this speech to be in denunciation of what it is a foregone conclusion the convention will do.

Two-Thirds Rule to Stand.

It is decided that the two-thirds rule will stand. The gold men contemplate this with some satisfaction, and claim it is a small

It is, however, the deliberate act of the silver leaders, and its object to take it out of the power of the eastern contingent to make selection from among the free coinage candidates, and to throw their votes to him, making a nomination, which the mafority of the silver men do not want. The leaders want to gain time, and this twothirds rule serves this purpose. If it becomes troublesome, after it has served its purpose, the majority can suspend it any

A story has been circulating this morning that a letter has been received from Senator Teller by Senator Dubois, declaring that he would not accept the democratic nomination. This is not correct. The letter received from Mr. Teller is of an entirely different nature.

The name of Gen. Schoffeld is mentioned today as a candidate. This is probably the first out-cropping of a plan laid out several weeks ago and abandoned before it found publicity. At one time it had been planned by a number of prominent southern and western democrats to hold a conference in Washington for the purpose of launching the Schoffeld boom. The time for holding the conference was actually named. It was said that Gen. Schofield would be presented as an Illinois man, and his strong advocacy of free silver was to be made the basis of his selection. It was said that Governor Altgeld would favor the move, in spite of Schofield's connection with the army, when troops were ordered to Chicago, it being shown that Schofield was not responsible for the act. The whole plan miscarried, men connected with it becoming interested in another plan, which they regarded as more practicable. It is not believed that the mention of Schofield now is any more than a faint echo of things past.

Senator Teller's Advice.

Senator Dubois has received the following letter from Senator Teller:

MORRISON, Ill., June 24, 796. Hon. Fred. T. Dubois, Springfield, III. Dear sir: I reached this place yesterday ard will remain here until the last of the week, when I will leave for Denver. I notice that the gold standard democrats have declared their intention to control the Chicago convention. I do not think they can do it. If our silver friends control the convention and give us a good silver man, as I think they will, I think he should have the active support of all who believe meney question is the great questi before the American people. We must, for this campaign at least, overlook all minos differences and put the country on a sound firancial system, that recognizes that gold and silver are the money of the Constitution. I believe this can be done, and to that end we must bend all our energies. A little more patriotism and a little less partisarship is what our country needs at

The friends of silver made no mistake at St. Louis, and we must not make a mistake as to our future alliance with other silver advocates. The cause is of too much im-We must all get together until the battle is won. It will be a royal battle with jus-tice on our side. We must win. Let me hear from you scon. Yours, truly,

This is the letter which gossips who had rot read it described this morning as a letter declining to permit the use of his name as a candidate. Its purport is quite the contrary.

TALK OF A CAUCUS.

Silver Men May Fix Up a Slate Before the Convention. CHICAGO, Ill., July 3.-There is talk among the free silver leaders of calling a caucus of their forces before the convention for the purpose of flxing a slate. Should this be done, Governor Altgeld's idea of a "one-day" convention may be carried into effect. W. H. Hinrichsen, chairman of the Illinois state central committee, and delegate-at-large, says that there is a strong sentiment among the free silver delegates now in the city in favor of such a caucus. "But even should there be no caucus," he continued, "I have an idea that the work of the convention can be wound up in a single day. As I figure it out, the silver candidates for the nomination for President will be Bland, Boles, Blackburn, Matthews and McLean. Of these I rather incline to the belief that Boies and Bland will get the bulk of the votes, and that whoever has the greatest number of votes on the first ballot will be nominated on the second. As to the gold men, I don't think we have anything to fear of them. As soon as they get here and circulate among the delegates they will have political sagacity enough to see they are in a hopeless minority, and that to make a fight would be butting their heads against a brick wall with an idea of battering it down. The majority of the democrats of the country are for free silver, and it has always been the policy of the demo-crats to allow the majority to rule."

To Mr. Hinrichsen's notion, C. S. Thompson, national committeeman from Colorado, and chairman of the delegation from that state, stands a good show of being selected for temporary chairman. "It is quite possible," Mr. Hinrichsen went on to say, "that the temporary organization will be made permanent. This would be done for the purpose of expediting business."

TEMPORARY CHAIRMANSHIP.

To Select Some One Not Identified With the Silver Movement.

CHICAGO, July 3.-It has been determined, so far as such a matter can be in advance of the meeting of the national committee, that the committee will select for temporary chairman some man who is not identified with the silver movement, although it may have leanings toward it. It is apparent from the talk of the members of the committee who are here that they do not like the terms which the silver men laid down for the subcommittee, and they feel that the national committee should not be dictated to in this matter by some utside organization.

Ben. T. Cable, member of the national committee for Illinois, who was not at the neeting of the subcommittee when the delegation of silver leaders appeared th days he is opposed to having the demo-cratic national committee swerve from its usual custom in the selection of a tem-porary chairman, and if the convention ices not like the committee's selection it will have the right to vote for another man. It seems to be the opinion that the committee will be going far outside its custom to submit to a faction of the party in the selection of a presiding officer.

L. Victor Baughman of Maryland, who is the proxy for Senator Gorman on the national committee, was at the national committee headquarters today, and announced that he believes in carrying out the in saying that he believes the democratic national committee has the interests of the party too much at heart to even attempt to take any unfair adxantage at such an imthinks that some fair and impartial democrat, such as Vice President Stevenson would give satisfaction to every element of the party. It was suggested to Mr. Baughman that the Vice President was not a delegate to the convention, but he says the national committee has authority to go outside the convention to select its temporary presiding

THE GOLD STANDARD MOVEMENT.

Awaiting the Arrival of the Eastern CHICAGO, July 3.-With the exception of the active work of the local gold standard men, the movement in that direction lies dormant today, and will cemain in that condition until the arrival of eastern gold tandard men late this afternoon.

Chairman Harrity has refused to be very active in the cause until the arrival of his eastern conferees, because as the head of the national committee he will in a measure have to aid in the deciding what is now the knotty point between the gold standard and the silver men, the selection of a temporary chairman. On this matter the silver men.

Senator Blackburn, an active silver man and a presidential candidate, while pro-claiming against any gold standard man wielding the gavel at the convention, tempers his remarks with the statement that he is equally opposed to any gag law or the rushing of the convention by those in centrol. He said this morning: "The men who are coming to fight for gold are good democrats and as such are entitled to a hearing before the convention. The republican convention gave a respectful hearing to the silver men, even though hey knew that their party was to be dis rupted, and there is no reason why we should not do the same."

On the other hand, there are those who urge that the previous question should be moved on all motions and that the gold standard advocates should not be allowed

Chairman Harrity, who will call the convention to order, refuses to say today whether he will rule that speeches are in order or not prior to the selection of a temporary chairman. At that time no rules will have been adopted for the governmen of the convention, the congression having to be adopted by resolution.

The silver men who are opposed to Senator Hill or any other gold standard man, say they will move the adoption of the rules prior to the selecting of a chairman, but Harrity says that his only busines to call the convention together and then name the national committee's choice for temporary chairman. If the name mentioned is one that meets with the disapproval of the silver men, they will move a substitute and then move the previous question, all then depends upon whether the chair-All then depends upon whether the chairman of the national committee will recognize this call for the previous question in the absence of rules. If he refuses and the gold standard men are allowed to talk then there will doubtless be an exciting scene.

The easterners have among them several stilled are lightless and the several stilled are lightless. eral skilled parliamentarians, and there are also some clever men among the southern and western delegates. The rank and file of the silver men are almost rabid in their eagerness to control, and there may be great trouble. But all this sur-mise of approaching and apprehended trouble may be abrogated by an amicable arrangement between the national commit-tee and the sliver men. Some of the sli-ver leaders are urging that there is no harm to come to their cause by having Hill as chairman of the temporary organization, for by a majority they can overrule his rulings. Vice President Stevenson is mentioned today as a possibility, and his name is received with more favor than Hill's.

THE PLATFORM.

Many Conferences Regarding the Different Planks. CHICAGO, July 3.-Notwithstanding the convention is still four days off, there are almost continuous conferences among those who expect to be called upon to make the platform when it is made. They consist largely of the free silver leaders, who are located at the Sherman House. Their plans all look to the preparation of a document which, while it will cover various other questions of democratic faith, will give the place of prominence to the financial declaration. It is indeed now expected that the platform will be a silver pronun-ciamento, setting forth the free coinage dectrine in the form of a ringing address which will appeal to the support of all silver advocates of whatever party.

The gist of the plank will, however, be an unequivocal declaration for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without awaiting the ratio of 16 to 1, without awaiting the action of any other nation.

The tariff plank is really giving the silver majority more concern than the financial declaration. They consider this a very delicate matter. The silver question is recognized by all as the paramount than the constant of the silver question is recognized by all as the paramount than the silver question is recognized by all as the paramount that the silver question is recognized by all as the paramount that the silver questions are the silver questions as the silver question and the silver question are the silver questions as the silver question are the silver question and the silver question are the silver question and the silver question are the silver question as the silver question are the silver question and the silver question are the silver question as the silver question are the silver question and the silver question are the silve issue, but the democracy has been so per-sistent in its declarations in the tariff and the republicans made it so prominen in their platform that they realize the impossibility of ignoring it. This they would gladly do if they could for this one time, because of the effect that a declaration leaning too pronouncedly toward free trade would have upon the republican silver men and populists, whose votes they hope to secure with a free silver

So far as there has been an exchange o opinion, the tendency is decidedly toward a very brief and not a very pronounced declaration on this point. The leaders feel that the financial question is one requiring a declaration of principle, but that the tariff is a proper subject to play politics

They will probably announce adherence to democratic traditions on this subject, though in very general terms, and an-nounce the belief that with the mintage of silver the present tariff will produce sufficient revenue for the needs of the govern ment. There may be a declaration for more equitable adjustment than that con in the present law, with the hope of reconciling the wool and lumber men o The plank may even contain an implied reconcilement to protection in words indicating that any tariff, even though for revenue only, is a protection to

Judge Powers of the Utah delegation has submitted from that delegation the follow ing draft of a tariff plank:
"We favor the imposition of duties to meet the demands of the government for revenue, such duties to be so adjusted as to operate equally throughout the country not to discriminate against classes of Judge Powers expresses the opinion tha declaration of this character would be satisfactory to the west and also that it would meet all the demands of the situation and of the democratic faith. It was taken substantially from a report by Sec-retary Walker and embodies the principles on which the Walker tariff was based.

Working Hard to Prove the Desirability of His Nomination.

CHICAGO, July 3.-There was a strong rally of the friends of Senator Teller today following the assertion by "Buck" Hinrichsen of Illinois yesterday that the Colorado Senator would not accept the nomination. The silver bolters from the St. Louis convention are working like trajans to impress upon the democratic silver eaders the great advantage of Teller's comination in solidifying all the silver elements of the west, and they are being warmly supported by Mr. Taubeneck chairman of the populist party's committee, Dr. Mott of North Carolina, secretary of the silver party, and the representatives of the independent silver element gener-

Taubeneck, assuming to speak for the populists, declares most emphatically that unless Teller is nominated the 3,000,000 votes, which he claims that organization centrols will be cast for a candidate to be selected by the populists at their national convention in St. Louis on the 21st. The coterie of democratic silver Senators who are on the ground recognize Teller's great individual strength and his towering figure as a great champion of silver, and privately most of them would like to see him nominated, but there is a general fear that the rank and file of the democratic party would rebel against the selection of a man who so recently walked out of a republican national convention. Nevertheless, they are canvassing Teller's availability with earnestness with all the incoming delegates, and upon the result of their quiet conferences the question of the presentation of Teller's name will depend.

The influence of Governor Altgeld as the leader of the Illinois delegation makes his position on the question of the nomine of vast importance ocratic silver leaders, all the candidates striving for his support.
So far Governor Altgeld has not committed himself, although there has been a strong impression that he favors Governor Stone of Missouri, and that despite denials of Bland's friends, that Governor Stone could ever be induced to become a candidate with Bland in the field, that at the proper time Bland will be brought for-

The straight public commitment of Gov. ernor Altgeld up to date has been in favor of Judge McConnell of this city, but it developed today that Judge McConnell is in favor of Teller's nomination. The silver men are overjoyed at this, as they believe it will materially influence Governor Altgeld. Judge McConnell is reported to written a strong letter to Altgeld last night, advocating the advisability of Teler's nomination, and the silver repu pelieve it will have its effect on Altgeld.

REPUBLICAN BIMETALLISTS.

Indorsement by the League of Senator Teller's Bolt. OMAHA, Neb., July 3 .- The Republican Bimetallic League was organized a year ago. At a meeting held here recently the following resolution was adopted, and has been signed by all members of the league who could be reached: "The Republican Bimetallic League deems the time to have come when it should make the following declaration:

"Its organization was formed in the hope that the republican party would in the future, as in the past, be true to the behest and will of the people upon all the living issues, and especially in the demand for free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. But that hope has been dispelled. In its national council at Louis the party declared for gold and the single standard; that this great nation, dedicated in its birth to the highest dededicated in its birth to the highest development of the human race, should engage in the business of millionaires and paupers; that the classes should dominate the masses, and that the government of the people for the people and by the people should perish from the earth.

"We, as a league, therefore, most heartily dorse the stand taken by Hon. Henry M Teller and his associates in their patriotic efforts to prevent this party betrayal of self and alike commend their withdrawal from such convention when it ceased to represent the party of Lincoln, Grant and Garfield.

"We are further persuaded that our duty is clear; we are called upon as men and citizens of the republic to resist this pro-united action of all persons and parties who are in belief and sympathy with us, to make one united effort to establish the financial policy of this government upon the true principles of bimetallism as it ex-isted prior to 1873.

COLORADO'S POSITION.

Committeeman Thomas' Delegation to Vote for the Bost Available Man. DENVER, Col., July 3.—C. S. Thomas, national democratic committeeman for Colorado, and chairman of the Colorado delegation to the Chicago convention, before leaving for Chicago denied the report that he would advocate the comination of Vice President Stevenson.

"The delegation has not discussed the question at all," said he. "We are letting the friends of the various candidates wrangle, and will be ready and satisfied to vote for the man who can best combine the silver strength." Mr. Thomas further said: "There is no rule that a majority of the democratic convention cannot change, and it can, if it sees fit, make temporary organization other than recommended by the national committee. tee. If the gold men want to bolt, they can easily find excuses, so they might as well use that as any. But we will have the hall, the delegates and everything else that hall, the delegates and everything else that goes to make the convention."

Mr. Thomas' attention was called to the reported plan pledging the delegates upon their arrival, and said: "It is altogether unnecessary. We have taken the lesson given us by our opponents, and the unit rule has been adopted by our delegates. It will be necessary for the gold men to see will be necessary for the gold men to se-cure a majority of each delegation before they can make inroads upon the silver

PENNSYLVANIA'S DELEGATION.

Bound for Chicago to Boom "Pattison

and Sound Money."

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 3.—The Pennsylvania delegates from this city and the eastern counties of the state left here with a number friends on a special train over the Pennsylvania rallroad at 8:30 this morning for Chicago to attend the democratic national convention. The train is made up of a combination baggage and refreshment car, three sleepers and a dining car for the use of the delegates and their friends and an extra sleeper for the use of the wives of a number of the delegates. The locomotive and cars were decorated with flags and bunting, and on the side of one of the cars was a huge piece of canvas bearing the motto:

"Pattison and Sound Money." John J. Curley, chairman of the democratic city committee, and Robert E. Wright, chairman of the state committee, are in charge of the train. Among the prominent democrats on the train are Collector of Internal Revenue William H. Doyle, Surveyor of the Port P. Gray Meek, Naval Officer J. Marshall Wright, Benjamin F. Meyers of Harrisburg, W. D. Bigler of Clearfield, J. T. Lemahan, Wilkesbarre; M. C. Eby, Harrisburg; Col. A. M. Holding, West Chester, and Magistrates Carr and Wilhere. Steps will be made at Lancaster and Harrisburg, where other delegates will be picked up.

At Tyrone, a special car having on board At Tyrone, a special car having on poaru a party of thirty as guests of Senator J. Henry Gochrane of Williamsport will be attached to the train. BLAND'S FRIENDS CONFIDENT.

They Seem Sure of His Nomination at Chicago.

LEBANON, Mo., July 3.-Bland's friends here are supremely confident of his nomination and they are preparing headquarters from which his campaign will; be coned. Three large rooms have been a cured as offices, and the Western Union Telegraph Company have put in two extra wires to handle the convention business and press dispatches. Mr. Bland's mail has reached large proportions, and he spends half the day dictating letters. If Mr. Bland is nominated, Lebanon, it has been planned, will have the biggest celebration any town in Missouri has ever

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 3.-Extensive reparations are making to carry Missouri and Kansas Bland supporters to Chicago by the hundreds. Col. Joseph Mercer, del-egate to the national convention from this district, left for Chicago last night to perfect arrangements for the reception of these men in Chicago. The local Bland club has already established headquarters here for the delegates and others bound for Chicago from the outlying cities and towns are being cared for. Kansas democrats, who are going on what here here who are going on what has been named the "Bland special," will arrive in Kan-sas City Sunday morning, and letters are sas City Sunday morning, and letters are being received every day by the club from Kansas and Missouri points noting the in-tentions of dozens of clubs to go at the same time. It is estimated that the train which will leave over the Alton at 5:45 p. m. Sunday next will carry fully 800 people.

Three other Bland specials, one from southern Missouri and two from St. Louis, which will carry in the aggregate 1,800 passengers, will meet the Kansas City section at Bloomington, Ill. There they will be made up into one monster train and run on to Chicago, drawn by five engines. The regalia of the Bland Club will be straw hats and blue satin and medallion badges, with the picture of Mr. Bland suspended from a silver bar and surmounted by eagles.

The Maryland Delegation.

Special Dispatch to The Evening Star. BALTIMORE, Md., June 3 .- The Maryland delegation to the democratic national convention will leave here for Chicago tomorrow morning. But few Marylanders will accompany the delegation, and the state's representation at the convention will be a striking contrast to that of four years ago. Few of the old ring democrats are going, and it looks as if Eugene Higgins will be the only associate of the old leaders at the convention. The growth of the silver sentiment in rural Maryland is still a subject of amazement and regret to the party leaders, and three of the delegates will unquestionably vote for silver coinage and surprise will be aroused if others do not follow their example. Con-servative democrats hope that Vice Presi-dent Stevenson will be named for President.

Gold Standard Texans. CORSICANA, Tex., July 3.-The gold standard democrats of Texas intend to carry their claims to represent Texas democracy first before the executive committee, and, if necessary, thence to the credentials committee, and thence to the convention. They intend to have a full hearing. The Colorado Delegation.

DENVER, Col. July 3.-Three of the Colorado delegates to the democratic national convention Charles S. Thomas, John H. Poole and T. F. O'Donnell-have already started for Chicago. The other five will leave tonight. Five of the Colorado delegates favor the nomination of Bland, and as the unit rule will be observed, he will probably receive the eight votes of Colorado on the first ballot. Should Teller's name be presented, Celorado's votes will go to him, but the Colorado delegates will present no candidate.

Comes Out for Bland.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 3.—The Kansas City Times, which has heretofore been pronounced in its advocacy for the gold standard, and unwavering in its support of the Cleveland administration, comes out this morning with an editorial practically admitting that the silver men have already won a victory at Chicago, and pledging the Times to support the nominees of the convention.

In addition to the editorial there appears on the first page a three-column portrait of Richard P. Bland, under this caption: "For President of the United States, 'Silver Dick' Bland of Missouri." The Essex Coming Home.

Another Medal of Honor.

A medal of honor has been presented to Henri Le Fevre Brown, late sergeant Company B, 12th New York Volunteers, for most distinguished gallantry in action at the battle of the Wilderness, May 6, 1864. This officer voluntarily, and under a heavy fire from the enemy, three times crosses the field of battle with a load of ammuni tion in a blanket on his back; thus supplying the federal forces, whose ammuni-tion had nearly all been expended, and en-abled them to hold their position until re-inforcements arrived, when the enemy were driven from the position. Mr. Brown now resides at Jamestown, Chautauqua county, N. Y.

Two Robberies.

The railroad depots were crowded this afternoon with persons looking for friends coming on the Christian Endeavor excursions, and Inspector Hollinberger has detectives detailed to lookout for crooks. At the Baltimore and Ohio depot the crowd was very large, and two robberies were reported. An elderly woman from Trenton, N. J., remembers that there were two well-N. J., remembers that there were two well-dressed young men pushing against her in the crowd, and when she got out of the depot she discovered that her pocket book, containing $50, had been taken from her pocket. Soon afterward a young lady, also a stranger, reported that she had been relieved of her pocket book, which contained $10. Both cases are being investigated by the police.

Looking for Northridge. The police of the first precinct are looking for George Northridge, the alleged pugilist, on a charge of seriously assaulting Nellie Saunders at Lou Burke's house, in the "Division." It is said that he had teen the Burke woman's particular friend, and this morning, when he called to see her, she was not at home. The Saunders woman was there, and it is alleged he as-saulted and kicked her. He was located in a neighboring house, but when the officers posed wrong; we, therefore, invite all re-publicans to join with us in securing the for Funchal, en route to the United States.

Report of the Board Which Has Considered the Subject

Nutrition It Should Contain-Length of Time That It Can Be Advantageously Used.

Secretary Lament has received the report of the board of officers : ppointed in March last "to consider and recommend a prope ration for troops operating in emergencies, and also to report "upon the minimum amount of articles of food necessary to sustain a soldier in health and activity while in active service in the field for a limited period." The board consisted of Maj. Charles Smart. surgeon: Maj. Charles A. Woodruff, commissary of subsistence Maj. E. A. Garlington, inspector general;

Capt. Louis A. Craig, 6th Cavalry, and First Lieut. Wm. C. Brown, 1st Cavalry. The report of the board is an elaborate document, and considers the subject in all its phases. The board concurs in the view of the various department boards that it would be unwise to select as the stap an emergency ration any article of food with which the soldier is not familiar, or which would make a material change in als dietary during the continuance of the emergency. It therefore rejects suggestions of a bread containing oat meal, all pemmicans or meat pastes prepared from dried or powdered beef, corned beef and dried and smoked beef, canred cooked beef, pepand smoked beer, canned cooked beer, per-tonized or partially predigested meat, &c. The board also decided that the three food staples of the emergency ration to be recommended for adoption should, in gen-eral terms, consist of hard bread, bacon The body of William Rettger, who was killed last night, has been removed to his and some variety of compressed soup.

What It Should Contain.

Guided by considerations of nutrition. weight, convenience, general utility, &c. the board decided that "the emergency ration should contain as much of the proximate principles of food as is necessary to sustain the soldier under the maximum of physical strain." As meeting these requirements it was decided that the amounts of the varicus components of the emergency ration should be as follows: Hard bread ration should be as follows: Hard bread, 16 oz.; bacon, 10 ez.; pea meal, 4 oz.; coffee, toasted and ground (with 4 gr. saccharin), 2 oz.; or ½ oz.; tea, with 4 gr. saccharin; salt, .64 oz.; pepper, .04 oz.; tobacco, ½ oz., n.aking a total weight, with coffee, of 33.18 cz., or with tea, 31.68 oz.

It was also recommended by the board that the subsistence department supply suitable bags in such numbers as may be necesary for carrying the roasted coffee and the salt and pepper; also a tough paraffin paper for use in wrapping about bacon when carried on the person, and also that the pea meal be issued in a compressed cylindrical package. In general terms the components of the suggested ration consist of 25 3-4 ounces water free food, having an available energy equivalent to 4,110

'The board says that the ration is not intended for continuous use, but only for use occasionally and for short periods. The ctive in its construction is the larger food value in the smallest weight. It gives close upon the standard dietary quantity needful to repair muscular wastes

Can Last Ten Days. concluding its report the board ex presses the belief from the evidence before t that men in well fed and healthy con dition at starting can undergo the ordinary fatigues and hardships of an active campaign for at least ten days on the equivalent of a subsistence diet such as that given by Playfair and without any impairment of health resulting from the tempo-rarily restricted diet.

The board concluded from its experiments that emergency rations for five days should be the maximum number of rations o be carried on the person of the soldier. In emergencies of less than five days the board says the troops should be required to carry the full ration for the number of duration," says the board, "the commandirg officers may direct economy in the use of the ration, so that the five days rations may be made to last for any number of days not exceeding ten. From their chardays not exceeding ten. From their character as issued, the articles of the ration are susceptible of accurate subdivis which means they may be used with any degree of liberality between a minimum of subsistence diet and a maximum emerg-ency, or hard labor diet.

CARNEGIE STEEL WORKS.

They Were Visited and Inspected by Secretary Herbart. Secretary Herbert returned to Washington yesterday from a visit of inspection of the Carnegie steel works in Pittsburg and vicinity. The Secretary was desirous of seeing for himself the whole process of armor making, before beginning his inquiry into the actual cost of production. With him were Capt, Sampson, chief of the ordnance bureau; Naval Constructor Taylor and Private Secretary Finney. The party was met at Pittsburg by the officials of the Carnegie company and taken at once on a special train to Homestead. The Edgar Thompson and Duchesne mills were also visited. All of the work under the old armor contracts is nearly finished, and most of the armor remaining to be deliv-ered was found in the machine shops undergoing the last operations, while the work under the new contracts has not advanced beyond the casting a few ingots. Therefore the Secretary was not able to witness the intermediate processes, but this omission may be supplied later on when the Secretary visits the Bethlehem works.

An Examination Board. In order to make vacancies for this year's class of graduates at the Military Academy the Secretary of War has determined to appoint a board for the examination of twelve officers, said to be physically unfit for further active service. The board will probably convene in Chicago, and Maj. Gen. Merritt, commanding the department of the Missouri, will probably be its president. Among the officers reported to be subject to examination for retirement by the proposed board are the following: Col. R. A. posed board are the following: Col. R. A. Crofton, commanding the 15th Infantry at Fort Sheridan, Chicago; Lieut. Col. J. H. Bradford, 17th Infantry; Maj. A. S. B. Keyes, 3d Cavalry; Major J. A. Darling, 5th Artillery; Maj. J. G. Turnbull, 5th Ar-tillery, and First Lieut. J. S. Oyster, 1st

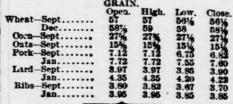

Artillery. A Naval Attache.

Lieut. A. P. Niblack, at present naval aid to Assistant Secretary McAdoo, is slated, it is said, to succeed Lieut. C. E. Vreeland as naval attache of the United States legations in Berlin, Vienna and Rome.

THE EMERGENCY RATION FINANCE AND TRADE

Moderate Improvement in Quotations of Stocks.

CONTINUATION OF THE FOREIGN DEMAND

More Confidence Entertained Abroad Than at Home.

GENERAL MARKET REPORTS

Special Dispatch to The Evening Star.

NEW YORK, July 3 .- A decreased volume of business and moderate improvement in both values and sentiment were the principal features of today's stock market. Local buying was largely attributable to the covering of short contracts, but the foreign demand is decidedly encouraging, and is believed to represent investment purchases. A favorable report of earnings by St. Paul, showing an increase of something more than $141,000 last week, and a total increase of five and one-half millions since last July, added to the previously demonstrated preference for this property by foreign houses.

It is a significant fact that St. Paul and Nashville close the week practically at a parity with last Saturday's final figures, while elsewhere concessions varying from 1 to 4 per cent prevail. The strength of the two stocks named is due largely, if not exclusively, to the foreign demand. of the two stocks named is due largely, if not exclusively, to the foreign demand. If London has sat in judgment upon the complications and apprehensions of the present situation and purchases stocks freely after mature deliberation, local operators should not hesitate long before joining in the movement.

The triumph of silver next fall would mean an important revolution in our for eign commercial relations. It is therefore encouraging to note that foreigners have the confidence, temporarily relinquished at home, in the perpetuation of the present standard.

The week has been devoted to a general strengthening of speculative accounts, long lines have been reduced below the danger point and weak holders have been forced out. This process has gone a long way to-ward reducing the possibilities of a panic should apprehension from any cause in-crease. Concessions from the present level if not entirely satisfactory as a purch level should discourage a material ex-tension of the short account.

The withdrawal of $250,000 gold from the

The withdrawal of $250,000 gold from the subtreasury this morning was the only incident of importance in connection with the gold movement. The larger foreign houses reported the absence of any necessity for foreign shipments, the amount withdrawn today not being intended for export. The alliest activation will naturally encourage a disposition to hoard gold, but it is doubtful if such a process will assume alarming proportions.

With the Chicago convention disposed of,

With the Chicago convention disposed of, the present prominence of silver will be diminished by an aggressive campaign for gold which has been delayed pending the actual drawing of the issues. Recent news items have neglected gold and given almost exclusive attention to silver. Gold and its powerful ally, protection, will assume new and more significant proportions within a few days, and speculative sentiment is consequently liable to sudden reversal. Chicago's action should be completely discounted at the time of the convention's dissolution.
